BIRR VINTAGE WEEK & ARTS FESTIVAL

31 JULY–8 AUGUST 2026

birrvintageweek.com

WELCOME to the 58TH Birr Vintage Week & Arts Festival!

It's another fantastic team effort to bring the 58th festival to life, with beloved favourites returning alongside some exciting new surprises.

Super Saturday is packed with events from morning to night! From the Market, buskers, exhibitions and theatre performances to the ever-popular Duck Race it's one of the highlights of the week.

Vintage Sunday introduces a new addition to the Parade of Bikes and Barrows, and we're encouraging everyone to get involved - with a cash prize adding extra incentive to take part! After the parade, stay awhile and enjoy a fantastic line-up of performers and entertainment as part of the Big Birr Street Fest.

Firework Night returns to Birr Rugby Club this year, with extra games and entertainment to keep the whole family busy before the night sky bursts into colour.

A huge thank you to our valued public funders, local businesses, and the wonderful people of Birr. Your continued support keeps the spirit and magic of the Festival alive year after year.

If you'd like to help keep the celebrations going, please support the businesses that support us, donate at our many free events, or sign up to volunteer through our website, we'd love to welcome you to the team.

Here's to celebrating old traditions, creating new memories, and enjoying one unforgettable week together.

ARTS

BIRR VINTAGE WEEK ARTS FESTIVAL

THE ARTS TRAIL

The theme of this year's Arts Trail is Presence, the magic of being here, together, in place and time. Throughout the festival, the arts make their presence felt in unexpected ways, with outdoor artworks woven through the town and pop-up performances appearing in public spaces.

As the programme evolved, however, the idea of presence became more intimate and personal, connecting visual art and performance through themes of home, family, memory and domestic life. Vintage Week is a time of homecoming, when people return to familiar places, reconnect with loved ones, and revisit shared stories. This year's Arts Trail celebrates those domestic spaces and histories that quietly shape our lives.

Echoes of domestic ritual and washing appear throughout the programme, from the Main Visual Art Exhibition, Domestic Mythologies, to the playful children's event Out of the Blue, and Republic of Silence, which reflects on the hidden histories and silences embedded within Ireland's institutional past.

Performance appears in surprising places, inviting you to see, hear, touch and experience the world differently. Immerse yourself in Luke Casserly's sensory bog performance Distillation, discover the playful pop-up world of Spailp, and follow a trail of stories, sounds and shared experiences across the town.

A clearer Arts Trail map will help you navigate the programme. You can also join one of our two Late Night Art Walks, where unexpected encounters and artistic surprises await. Alternatively, download our self-guided walk to explore this year's programme alongside some of Birr's permanent artistic and cultural features.

THE RAMBLING HOUSE

Birr Theatre & Arts Centre | Tue 4 Aug | 12pm

Join us for the showcase of a short visual project by artists Hazel Greene and Christor with Birr Men Together, exploring the tradition of the Irish rambling house through storytelling, oral history and a contemporary recorded gathering, reimagining this rich oral heritage for a modern audience. Supported by Offaly County Council through the Creative Ireland Community Grant Programme 2026–2027.

SAFE & SEEN: THROUGH THE LENS

Birr Theatre & Arts Centre | Tue 4 Aug | 2.30pm

A photography project showcase exploring refuge and identity among Ukrainian women living in Birr, connecting their experiences to The Law of the Innocents, enacted in Birr in 697 AD as an early legal protection for women, children and non-combatants. Through smartphone photography, participants weave a tapestry of images that together tell the story of being "Seen & Safe", where their phones are witnesses to their new lives. A digital version of the project will be on exhibition in St Brendan's Hall throughout the festival. Supported by Offaly County Council through the Creative Ireland Community Grant Programme 2026–2027.

DISTILLATION

Luke Casserly

A performative journey which takes you to the Irish bog landscape through scent. Distillation is a response to the recent cessation of the peat harvesting industry in Ireland. Over the past year, Luke Casserly has collaborated with renowned perfume maker Joan Woods to create a unique distillation of the Midlands bog - the place where he grew up - as the starting point for an olfactory encounter which looks at our human relationship to place. Dedicated to the future of our broken landscapes – in the hope that by listening to them, we might be able to better understand them.

Distillation is a multi-sensory performance featuring text, perfume, video and sculpture. The audience are seated around a large custom-made table and are gently invited to hold organic materials and smell parts of the landscape as part of the experience.

"A thought-provoking show that stays in the mind long after, like the sweet woody smell of the bog perfume that lingers on the wrist." - Irish Independent *****

REPUBLIC OF SILENCE

Emerging writer and director Kaci Kerwick brings this powerful new production from a young London-based Irish company following acclaimed performances at the Peckham Fringe Festival and Riverside Studios, Hammersmith.

Based on true stories from the Sean Ross Mother and Baby Institution in Tipperary, Republic of Silence moves between past and present in a sensitive, humorous and deeply heartbreaking exploration of Ireland's hidden history.

This hard-hitting play draws on real-life events that shook both Ireland and the Catholic Church when the truth of what took place within the walls of Sean Ross Abbey was finally exposed.

Performed by Oísin Nolan, Jack O'Shaughnessy, Áine McNamara and Eanna Ferguson

Audience members affected by the themes explored in this performance are encouraged to consult the Republic of Silence Care Pack available HERE.

*A brave, moving and necessary production. Bravo to the cast and crew – this is theatre that deserves to be seen – London Theatre 1**

DOMESTIC MYTHOLOGIES

Asha Murray, Niamh Coffey, Rebecca Tighe, Laura AngelL

Domestic Mythologies explores textile as a storytelling medium: tactile, personal and rooted in lived experience. Familiar through our homes, clothing and rituals of everyday life, textiles carry memory, labour and human touch. On first encounter, these works may appear playful, crafted or comforting, yet each artist shifts this often-domestic medium into the realm of contemporary art through unexpected materials, conceptual approaches and layered social histories.

TRACES

Andrea Moore & Jackie Carter, Jenny Fox

Traces brings together three artists exploring the marks left by those who came before us. Through personal histories and family narratives, their work reflects on memory, loss, inheritance, and the enduring presence of absent figures. Andrea Moore's Traces of Him Left Behind responds to the legacy of her grandfather, while Jackie Carter frames her work in a constructed and imagined story. Jenny Fox's work similarly examines the ways family stories and domestic histories are carried forward through generations.

Together, these works reveal how lives once lived continue to resonate in the present, shaping identity, belonging, and memory

WILD

Photography by Gerry Cummins. Exceptional and beautiful images of living creatures, from the landscapes of Ireland he has always loved. Gerry has exhibited and sold very successfully in many art galleries. This is his first in Birr. His photos transport the viewer into the wonderful world of nature.
Derek Fanning's wood sculptures -
Mythical Beasts: As a very busy journalist, he escapes when he can to walk in the wild on mountains and tracks, for tranquility. He finds inspiration for his artworks and poetry.
Opening Hours: Saturday 1st, 3 - 6pm. Monday 3rd to 7th August 2 - 6pm
Please check the studio Facebook page for any extra opening times.
